It was with the utmoſt Joy and Satisfaction, that we ſaw your Majeſty's Wiſdom yield to the Propoſals for an Alliance with a Proteſtant Family ſo illuſtrious; and that a Lady, whoſe amiable Character is not more exalted by the Dignity of her high Birth than her private Virtues, was deſtined to be the happy Partner of a Prince, whoſe eminent and diſtinguiſhed Services, during a ſucceſsful and glorious War, will ever be remembred by every Friend of True Religion and Publick Liberty.

Your Majeſty's faithful Citizens of London have ſeen with Gratitude, the Conſtitution of this Country, ſettled and eſtabliſhed by our great Deliverer King William, maintained and improved by the Illuſtrious Houſe of Brunſwick; and therefore they cannot ſufficiently applaud your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in further ſtrengthening it by this happy Alliance.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government; and of our conſtant Endeavours, within our Sphere, to contribute to the Happineſs and Proſperity of your Majeſty's Reign.
